STATEMENT OF SENATOR BEN ATCHLEY
PURSUANT TO RULE 61

April 14, 2003

Mr. Speaker:

I would like to make a few remarks concerning Senate Bill No. 859.

This bill is applicable only to Knox County and authorizes the Knox County Executive to exercise supervisory authority over the public library system which is currently supervised by the County Library Board. It is supported by the Knox County Commission and must be adopted by their two-thirds vote in order to be effective.

Knox County is unique to other counties in the state because:

- the library system has grown and includes significant financial and human resources to serve the needs of one of the state's most populous counties, with a budget in excess of $9 million for the 2002 fiscal year;
- Knox County is one of only two counties in Tennessee which have adopted a charter form of government and the level of management and oversight of the library system will be more efficient if it is integrated into the general operation of the county as one of the larger departments of government, rather than by an appointed board which meets on a periodic basis; and
- over the past several years, management of the library system has been adversely impacted by certain political influences; this bill will help de-politicize the operation of the system.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

/s/ Ben Atchley
